

Holy Moly Prayer Cards for Parents

The edifying messages in the Motherwise Holy Moly Cards for Parents cards can be carried in a pocket, wallet or stuck to the refrigerator with magnets so they will be in plain view of the intended party. Print an extra copy and share it with your friends who have teens. Enjoy!

Look for the card game coming soon. A full deck required in order to play.

Easy printing and assembly directions:

Print this on regular paper in landscape setting (Use card stock if you want it to last more than a day).

Cut out on the dotted lines.

Fold in half, vertically.

Glue the left and right (front and back) sections together. Tape is okay too.

Read, enjoy, share with a friend.

Where Have All the Car Keys Gone?

Where have all the car keys gone?
Long time harassing.
Where have all the car keys gone?
I wonder did they go?
Where have all the car keys gone?
Gone to youngsters on the go.
When will I ever learn, when will I ever learn.

Where have all my youngsters gone?
That was me you were passing.
Where have all my youngster gone?
Speeding down the road.
Where have all my youngsters gone?
Gone to hither and to yon.
When will I ever learn, when will I ever learn.

Where has all the gasoline gone?
Lots of money spent gassing.
Where has all the gasoline gone?
With tanks permanently on low.
Where has all the gas gone?
Gone to road trips just for fun.
When will they ever learn, when will they ever learn.

Where has all your money gone?
Earned at minimum wage, less taxes.
Where has all your money gone?
I think I know.
Where has all your money gone?
Gone to useless cruising to and fro.
That's a hard lesson to learn, that's a hard lesson to learn.
