

First Times Empathy Cards for Parents

The edifying messages in the Motherwise First Times Empathy Cards fit conveniently into most envelopes. Mail them with a return address and signature, or leave anonymously for someone experiencing a "first time." Simply print a copy, cut on the dotted lines, fold on the solid lines and share with someone whom you would like to say, "Been there, done that."

*Word from the Motherwise:
This is a natural reaction to authority. They will need something from the authority soon.*

Welcome to the club. The good news is membership is free and no kids are allowed.

*On The Occasion Of Your
First Time Being Told,
"I hate you."*
