

First Times Empathy Cards for Parents

The edifying messages in the Motherwise First Times Empathy Cards fit conveniently into most envelopes. Mail them with a return address and signature, or leave anonymously for someone experiencing a "first time." Simply print a copy, cut on the dotted lines, fold on the solid lines and share with someone whom you would like to say, "Been there, done that."

*Word from the Motherwise:
Make a point to spend quality alone time with each of your children. If not, you will get some fingers painted at you.*

Be patient. If you can wait 10 to 15 years, none of your kids will want your attention.

On The Occasion Of Your First Experience with Sibling Rivalry
